

Directions: Answer the following questions in the table below ONLY if you plan on using a website article(s) as a source. You do not need to fill this out for database articles because we know database articles are credible!

1. Does the author have verifiable credentials?
2. Is there a publishing date?
3. Is the publishing date current?
4. Are there citations or links for further reading on the topic?
5. Is there a publisher?
6. Does the information conflict with other sources?
